SCCCI ANNUAL BUSINESS OUTLOOK 2023

The World Ahead. Adversities or Opportunities?

27 FEBRUARY 2023, MONDAY 9.00AM – 12.30PM

TRADE ASSOCIATION HUB AUDITORIUM

COMPLIMENTARY

The world has entered an era of profound fragility and insecurities. The confluence of geopolitical risks, pandemic uncertainty, existential crises, economic recession and stagflation continue to inflict enormous cost and long-term consequences on economies and livelihoods. As we sail into this new era of uncertainties, what can we expect in the upcoming year. How can businesses reshape themselves to build resilience and rise above the forces of change?

Key Insights

- What are the challenges that the US and China are facing, and the outlook of the world's two largest economies?
- What are the key developments to watch and how should businesses position yourselves amidst the unfolding regulatory tsunamis?
- What are the breakthrough technologies and digital disruptors which investors should look out for?
- How can Singapore businesses stay resilient in the evolving and fragile environment and leverage on her neighboring ASEAN countries?
